

IEUME User manual for the eLearning platform

Overview:

The IEUME consortium has taken concrete steps to develop an innovative training programme to assist migrants to develop important skills and knowledge that will help them in their integration process. This training programme, comprised by a gamified curriculum and mini games, walks them through important aspects of the European civic life, supporting them to acquaint themselves with Institutions of the EU and the European Cultural Heritage, understand key aspects in regards to their Access to Rights and Civic Participation as well as take concrete steps in pursuing employment in their host country.

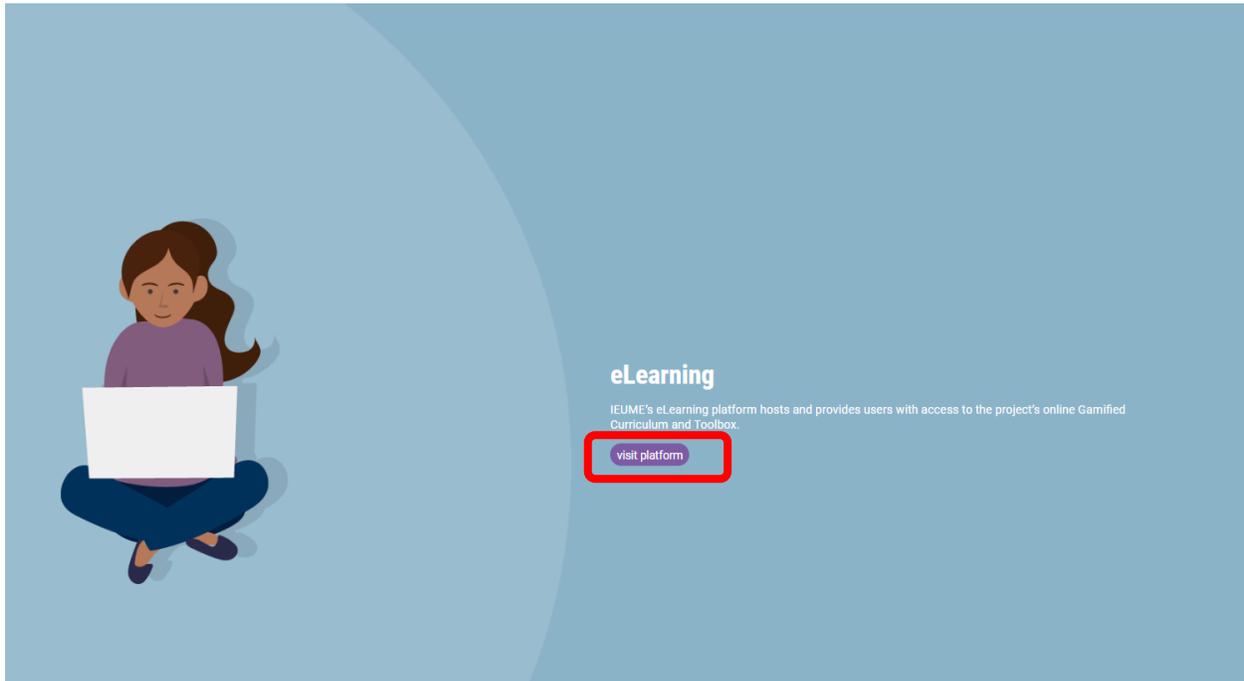

The learning material can be accessed through the eLearning Platform of the project that has been developed in a manner to ensure an easy to use and fun user experience that will help users to browse through the contents of the eLearning platform. Through the learning platform they can take study at their own pace the content and modules of the curriculum and/or test and sharpen their understanding of the issues presented via the mini games. The mini games are scenario-based mini quizzes in Basic, Intermediate and Advanced level, that users can play and progress, getting badges, as they complete them.

To access the eLearning Platform and its content, all you need to do is follow the easy steps listed below:

1. Visit the IEUME website at <https://www.ieume.com/>
2. From the Home page, click the eLearning tab to proceed to the relevant section:

3. Click the READ MORE button to visit the eLearning platform:

4. Create an Account or login to the platform to access its content

Forgotten your username or password?

Cookies must be enabled in your browser ?

Remember username

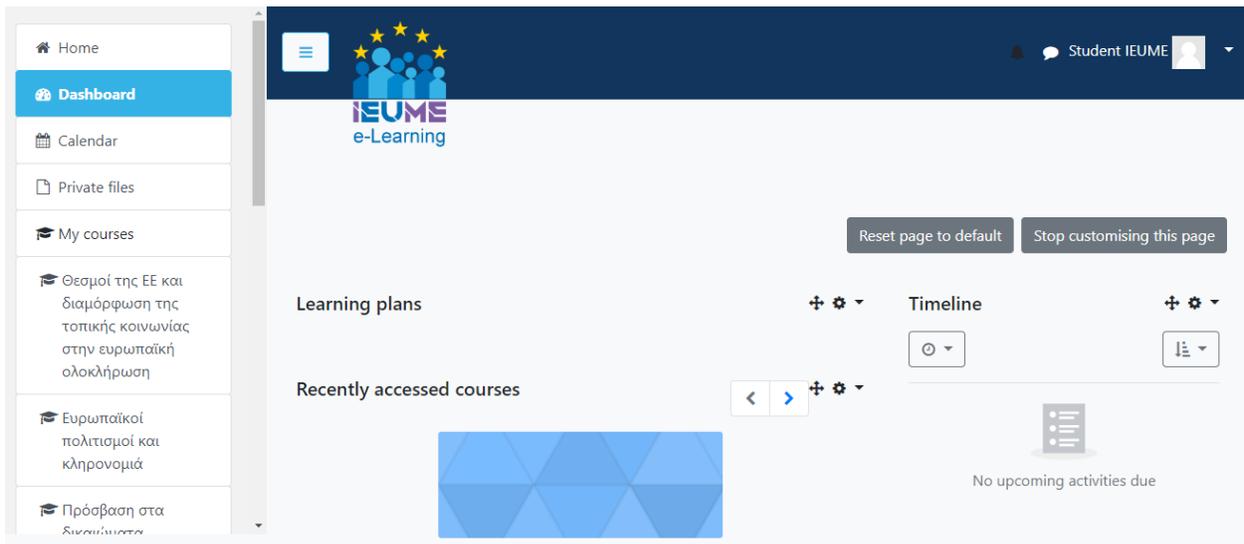

Is this your first time here?

For full access to this site, you first need to create an account.

5. You will land on this page, as shown below. On the side bar you will see a list of tabs that are useful for your navigation.

6. The dashboard button shows the different courses that you have available and the level of completion. Click on the course of your choice to access it.

The dashboard is divided into several sections:

- Home: A vertical sidebar on the left with navigation options: Home, Dashboard (highlighted), Calendar, Private files, My courses, Θεσμοί της ΕΕ και διαμόρφωση της τοπικής κοινωνίας στην ευρωπαϊκή ολοκλήρωση, Ευρωπαϊκοί πολιτισμοί και κληρονομιά, and Πρόσβαση στα δικαιώματα.
- Course overview: A central area with a filter dropdown set to "All (except removed from view)" and a "Course name" dropdown. It displays four course cards:
 - French: Accès aux droits, 0% complete.
 - Maltese: Aċċess għad-drittijiet, 0% complete.
 - English: Access to Rights, 0% complete.
 - French: Améliorer l'employabilité, 0% complete.
- Online users: Shows "1 online user (last 5 minutes)" with a profile icon for "Student IEUME".
- Latest badges: States "You have no badges to display".
- Calendar: A calendar for July 2020 with days of the week (Mon-Sun) and dates (1-31).
- Upcoming events: A section at the bottom right with a settings icon.

7. Your course will look like this:

The course page layout includes:

- Header: A dark blue header with the IEUME e-Learning logo and a user profile for "Student IEUME".
- Left Sidebar: A vertical menu with options: Access to Rights (highlighted), Badges, Competencies, Module Material, Basic Level Games, Home, Dashboard, Calendar, Private files, My courses, and Θεσμοί της ΕΕ και.
- Main Content Area:
 - Title: "Access to Rights" with a settings icon.
 - Breadcrumbs: "Home / My courses / Access to Rights".
 - Objectives Section:
 - Section Header: "Objectives" with a "Your progress" indicator.
 - Text: "Upon completion of the module participants will be able to:"
 - List:
 - Understand the concept of human rights within the EU and why such rights are an integral part of the EU;
 - Have a basic knowledge of different categories of rights and which rights form part of such categories;
 - Have a basic understanding of the different legal instruments protecting human rights within the EU;

8. When you scroll down, after reading the objectives, you will see a link with the Module content and a list of links to the related mini games. Notice that, you will be able to access the intermediate level mini games, after you complete the basic level, likewise for the advanced level.

The screenshot shows a user interface for the 'Access to Rights' module. On the left is a navigation sidebar with the following items: 'Access to Rights' (highlighted), 'Badges', 'Competencies', 'Module Material', 'Basic Level Games', 'Home', 'Dashboard', 'Calendar', 'Private files', 'My courses', and 'Θεσμοί της ΕΕ και'. The main content area is divided into four sections:

- Module Material: Contains one item, 'Interactive presentation on Access to Rights', which is highlighted with a red box.
- Basic Level Games: Contains three items: 'Universal Human Rights', 'Human Rights Day', and 'Goals and Values', all highlighted with a red box.
- Intermediate Level Games: A section with the text 'Not available until you pass all the games of the Basic Level'.
- Advanced Level Games: A section with the text 'Not available until you pass all the games of the Intermediate Level'.

9. By clicking to view the module, the interactive presentation will open on your browser.

The screenshot shows the interactive presentation titled 'Accessing Rights in the EU'. The presentation has a dark teal background with the title in white. At the bottom, there is a control bar with a close button (X), a sound toggle button, and a navigation arrow. The text next to the sound button reads: 'Toggle sound ON or OFF (you can change that later from the menu)'. The navigation arrow is a blue circle with a white right-pointing arrow. A hand cursor is visible over the navigation arrow.

10. By clicking to start a mini game, it will open in your browser

